This VWC event was hosted by VFW Post 9196, Rowena, Texas, at the Runnels County Court House Veterans Memorial located in Ballinger, TX. The EC-47 History Site provided the VWC related materials and assisted with setting up the VWC banner and a materials display table. The VFW Post 9196 and Auxiliary members arranged the public address system and seating for about 50 attendees. The Post 9196 Auxiliary also provided coffee and other refreshments. The weather was cool with blustery winds.

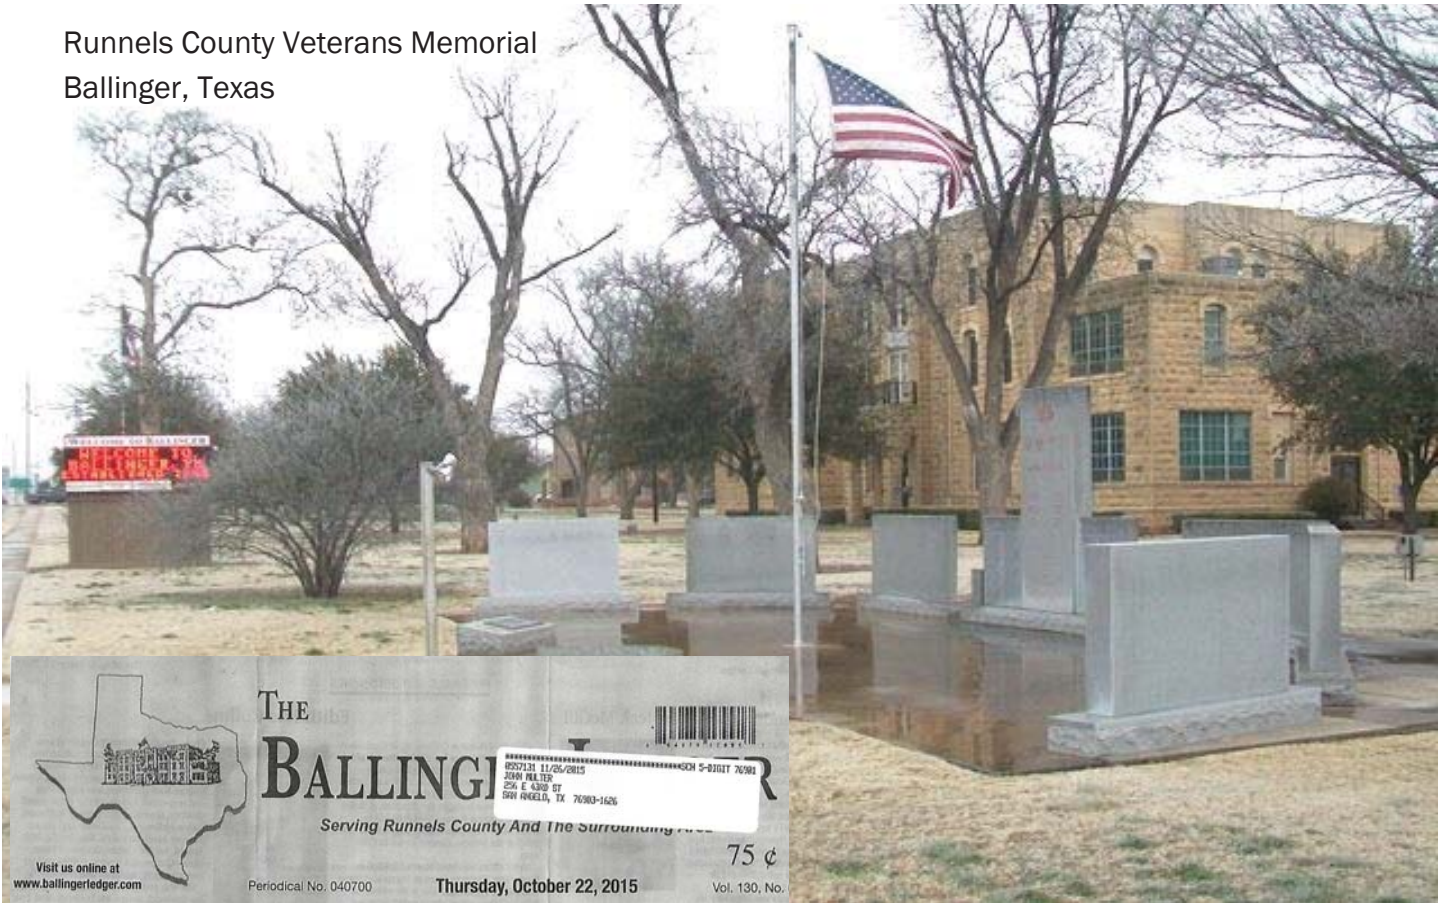

The outdoor event started promptly at 10 am with the flag raising, Pledge of Allegiance and Invocation. The guest speaker was Tom Nurre, Chairman of The EC-47 History Site VWC Partner committee. Nurre recapped the history of Veterans Day and a brief overview of the many veterans in his extended family, including 4 of his 7 brothers and all 3 of his wife's brothers that served during the Vietnam War-era. He explained the Vietnam War Commemoration program, its objectives, and the significance of the VWC lapel pin. VFW Post 9196 leadership and Vietnam War veterans, Mr. John Multer and Mr. Maynard Schwertner, who had previously received their VWC lapel pins at the VFW ceremony on August 16, 2015, called the attending Vietnam War-era veterans forward and thanked them and their families for their service, valor and sacrifice. They presented each veteran a VWC lapel pin and a VWC proclamation from the Mayor of San Angelo provided by the Angelo State University - West Texas Collection library. Family members were also embraced and offered the various pins, stickers and other VWC materials provided by the national VWC program managers. The event closed with a group prayer, photo session and the telling of war stories.

The event was successful in meeting the objectives of the VWC program. All veterans, especially the Vietnam War-era veterans and their families expressed their joy and appreciation for the attention afforded them by this special program. They were in a festive mood and lingered and visited until the veterans went to take their places for the start of the Ballinger Veterans Day parade at 11am. Mr. John Multer again served as the announcer/emcee and did a great job identifying and explaining all the parade participants as they passed by the court house memorial. It was a wonderful small town parade that included old cars and tractors, fire engines, motorcycles and horses. There were several patriotic organization floats and marching groups. . .with full participation by school children all dressed up and waving their signs and flags as they rode by in their own organization floats. The music, the flags, the Army marching unit, and all the town participants made this Veterans Day parade special for the veterans of all age groups. . .especially the Vietnam War-era veterans and their families.
